Wrongful Conviction Clinic

IU School of Law – Indianapolis

If you are interested in participating in the Wrongful Conviction Clinic, please complete this application and return to Administrator Ginger Smallwood or Professor Fran Watson in the Law Clinic. The Wrongful Conviction Clinic has classroom and client representation components. We study issues relating to wrongful conviction while representing clients claiming actual innocence in state and federal court proceedings. Questions may be directed to Professor Fran Watson, fwatson@ipui.edu. Professor Watson will contact you for an interview after you submit this application.
